FARGO ADVISORS

terence blanchard: September 19—22, 2012

The New Orleans trumpeter, known as a film composer for Spike Lee and as a standard-bearer of modern jazz innovation, returns to kick off the 2012-13 Jazz at the Bistro season.

billy childs quartet: October 3—6, 2012

2009 Guggenheim Fellowship awardee & Grammy Award winner Billy Childs has become one of the most in demand composers, arrangers and pianists in jazz. His stellar quartet features saxophonist Steve Wilson, bassist Scott Colley and drummer Brian Blade.

christian scott: October 17—20, 2012

Since his Concord debut, Rewind That, Scott has received significant accolades. He was quickly tapped as one of the faces to watch by Billboard, received a Grammy nomination for Rewind That and named one of Ebony's "30 Young Leaders Under 30."

terell stafford-this side of strayhorn: Oct. 31-Nov. 3, 2012

Known for being a gifted and versatile player with a voice all his own, trumpeter Stafford combines lyricism and a deep love of melody with a spirited, adventurous edge.

exclusively sponsored by

joey defrancesco trio: November 14—17, 2012

The finest jazz organist on the planet. Period. (According to Joey's website—and a lot of other people too.)

john pizzarelli quartet: November 28—December 1, 2012

For nearly 30 years, guitarist & vocalist John Pizzarelli has explored various corners of the jazz landscape and merged a variety of styles into a single, distinctive signature sound.

chris potter trio: December 12—15, 2012

"...easily the most compelling saxophonist of his generation." - Detroit Free Press

gregory porter: January 2—5, 2013

With a voice that can caress or confront, embrace or exhort, Grammy nominee Gregory Porter exhibits an incredible degree of vocal mastery.

sponsored by CORTLAND ASSOCIATES, INC.

the bad plus: January 16—19, 2013

Few jazz groups in recent memory have amassed such acclaim, and few have inspired such controversy.

dave holland quintet: January 30—Feb. 2, 2013

Heralded by The New York Times as "one of the jewels of the jazz world," the Dave Holland quintet is widely considered the premier acoustic group in jazz today.

NOTE: MARK TURNER IS REPLACING CHRIS POTTER FOR THIS ENGAGEMENT.

sponsored by CORTLAND ASSOCIATES, INC.

sachal vasandani: February 13—16, 2013

"Every now and again you hear a special voice that makes you sit up and take notice....Sachal has that voice." - NPR "All Things Considered"

exclusively sponsored by

Jim & Lynne Clanahan

kurt elling: February 27—March 2, 2013

American jazz vocalist Kurt Elling is a magician. He's capable of weaving a spell from a melody - and he lives and breathes the music.

exclusively sponsored by Nancy & Ken Kranzberg

john & gerald clayton duo: March 13—16, 2013

This father and son duo will bring the house down. Both Grammy nominees and band leaders in their own right.

joe sample trio: March 27—30, 2013

A founding member of the influential jazz funk combo The Crusaders (originally the Jazz Crusaders) and a pioneer of contemporary jazz piano, Sample reaches back to the primary sources of jazz & soul music to create his personal interpretations of classics.

marlena shaw: April 10—13, 2013

While everyone agrees that Marlena Shaw is a national treasure, she's difficult to categorize; but many have compared her range, class, and swing to that of jazz lights like Sarah Vaughn, Dinah Washington, and Nancy Wilson.

james carter &
the dr. lonnie smith trio: April 24—27, 2013

An authentic master & guru of the Hammond B-3 organ for over five decades, Dr. Lonnie Smith has been featured on over 70 albums, and has recorded and performed with a virtual "Who's Who" of the greatest jazz, blues, and R&B giants in the industry—including saxophonist James Carter.

lionel loueke: May 8—11, 2013

"Mr. Loueke is a gentle virtuoso. As a singer, he has a husky, sincere baritone and a melting falsetto that he uses to scat-sing along with his guitar solos. He's also a full-fledged jazz guitarist, and he uses both electronics—guitar synthesizer, looping devices—and African roots."
- The New York Times

freddy cole quartet with harry allen: May 22—25, 2013

"...an impeccable sense of swing... Freddy is, overall, the most maturely expressive male jazz singer of his generation, if not the best alive." - The New York Times
